

Many small business owners start businesses from their homes. The incubation stage of potentially large businesses is often the most difficult. We discuss business opportunities in six different categories including initial steps for starting new businesses.

Business Types

a b

c

Small Retailers
Small Distributors
Light Manufacturers
Off-site Services
On-site Services
Investing Capital

Each type of business activity contains different opportunities and risks. Each business owner wants to limit the downside risk costs as they attempt to reap the opportunities for profits and new relationships.